TEACHING LENS

Teach the conversation

Use the scene to establish context. Keep the listening script hidden from students.

Observe • support • respond

U06 • complete listening script

Teacher: This conversation is about our invented practice map.
Visitor: Excuse me. Where is the park?
Guide: It is opposite the bus stop.
Visitor: Thank you. Is there a library?
Guide: Yes. The library is next to the park.
Visitor: Where is the museum?
Guide: It is opposite the library. Look at the map.
Visitor: I can see it now. There is a café next to the park too.
Guide: Yes, there is.
Visitor: I like this place. I have my bag and some water. My friend is at the bus stop. After my visit, I go to the city centre by taxi.
Guide: Have a good day!
Visitor: Thank you for your help!

Read twice slowly with short pauses. Learners first choose the place, then complete details. Keep the script out of student view. “City centre” means the main central part of a city; the location here is fictional.

Listening answers

L1: A, the park. L2: 1 bus stop; 2 next; 3 library; 4 taxi. Accept recognisable phonetic spellings for comprehension, then model spelling.
